

GOLD AND MICROMOSAIC BRACELET, FIRST HALF OF THE 19TH CENTURY WORK

Articulated bracelet in gold composed of five micromosaic medallions framed in sculpted gold. Composed of five micromosaic panels each depicting a Roman building, including the Tomb of Cecilia Metella on the Appian way, temples of Hercules Cori, the Vesta, the Sybille Tivoli, ect... Presented in a box. First half of the 19th century work.

Era: first half of the 19th century.

Materials: gold, micromosaic.

Dim: Length 6.7 in (17 cm).