Onyx and micro-mosaic medallion bracelet, Napoleon III

Era: second part of the 19th century

Materials: gilt silver, glass

Dim: L 18,5 cm / H 3 cm

Silver hallmark: boar's head.

A link bracelet comprising six oval black onyx medallions, each featuring a micro-mosaic depicting a bird perched on a branch adorned with foliage and fruit. The motifs, crafted from polychrome glass tesserae, stand out against a dark background, highlighting the vibrancy of the colours. The elements are set within a silver frame accented with a twisted design, and linked together by small spheres and links. Tongue clasp. Napoleon III.

Small chips and a few micro-scratches on the onyx.
