

Set of six french carved ivory figures, signed Migeon

Set of six ivory carved figures representing characters illustrating old street trades. Thus is represented: the old player with his monkey, the screaming headwort, the seller of kitchen utensil with pots and strainers, the chimney sweep or young smoking Savoyard, and two elegant man and woman. These characters are strongly inspired by picturesque scenes from Callot. Some pieces are signed Migeon.

Era: 19th century.

Materials: ivory.

Dim: H 12 cm.