

Early 19th century pair of candelabra in gilded and patinated bronze with putti

Circa: 1820

A pair of three-lights candelabra in gilded and patinated bronze, composed of a winged patinated bronze putto standing on a sphere and holding a torch with three candleholders ciseled with scales. The lateral arms of light decorated with scrolled foliage are symmetrically disposed around the central arm adorned with vegetal patterns and flutes. They stand on a vase-shaped vase also decorated with scales and palmette on a square patinated plinth. Circa 1820.

Era: Restoration period, Charles X.

Materials: gilded and patinated bronze.

Dim: H: 53 cm/ W: 20 cm/ D 10 cm.