

GOLD AND ENAMEL BONBONNIERE.
LATE 18TH CENTURY FRENCH CRAFTSMANSHIP.

Circular, gold and enamel bonbonnière, or candy dish. The opaque, white enamel is inlaid with a polka dot pattern, and the box is framed with bands of gold and raised gold beading. The removable lid features a central, gold medallion that is embellished with a five-leaved flower and gold bead accents.

Ht: 1 in / Dia: 2.3 in. Weight: 2.8 oz

Charge mark: Henri Clavel (1781-1783)

Guarantee mark: Crowned P for Paris, 1782

Master goldsmith: Jean Nicolas Pique, accredited in 1780.

Price: 7700€

REF: 4850