

CHATELAINE IN GOLD AND SEMI-PRECIOUS STONES.
LATE 19TH CENTURY WORK.

Gold chatelaine with belt hook behind. Two smooth lapis lazuli blazons are set in thick, chain-link rings and topped with a crown embellished with pearls and inlaid with small green and red stones. Below the lapis lazuli blazons is a black enamel motto which reads "Tout ou Rien" (All or Nothing). Three short chains are suspended from the blazons and the motto, each of which is divided by a bead of lapis lazuli. At the end of each chain is a functional pendant: a jasper seal, a gold and lapis lazuli key, and a hook for attaching a watch. Weight: 1.8 oz Length: 5.1 in (including pendants)

Gold marks: Tête d'aigle (Eagle head) and Hiboux (Owls)

Second part of the 19th century work.

Price: 7000€

REF: 4987