

Bowl and Pitcher in blue Opaline with Desvignes Decoration

Bowl with its egg-shaped pitcher in turquoise-blue opaline crystal. They are decorated with gold, blue, and red friezes of anemones and forget-me-nots on a gilded background. Bouquets of roses and forget-me-nots adorn the paunch of the pitcher, and broad, gilded strips underline its curved rim, foot, and handle. Decoration produced by the Jean-Baptiste Desvignes studio.

Light wear to the gilding.

W: 5,1 in – D: 5,1in – H: 6,7in.

Circa 1820-1830.

Price: 4000€

REF: 4369