

SILVER AND IVORY VIRGIN MARY AND CHILD, 19TH CENTURY

Virgin Mary and Child in sculpted silver and ivory. She is standing upright, wearing a dress, a cloak, and a crown, and is carrying the Infant in her left arm. The faces of the Virgin and Child are thoughtful and very intricately sculpted. The group is set on a hexagonal base decorated with figures of saints that are set under Gothic arches and an openwork frieze. The base rests on the backs of six small lions.

Probably Northern European craftsmanship from the 19th century.

Era: end 19th century.

Materials: silver, ivory.

Dim: H 21.7 in (55 cm)/ W 6.3 in (16 cm).

Silver mark: Swan (imported silver)
