

Micromosaic plaque with river landscape. Circa 1820.

A rectangular micromosaic plate representing a river landscape. This plaque depicting a river on whose left bank is a gnarled tree; on the right bank a peasant stands in front of a rocky ledge with foliage, and in this distance is a town or ruin and mountain. The micromosaic is influenced by A.Aguatti. A similar plaque is in the Gilbert Collection in London.

L: 6,29 in (16 cm) / l: 5,31 in (13,5 cm)/ h: 0,62 in (1,6cm).

Italian work. Circa 1820-1830.

Price: 22000€

REF:8080