

Porcelain Inkwell.
Late 18th century.

A circular porcelain inkwell with a removable well and lid. The inkwell has three integrated pen holders that are accented with gold bands. The elegant green, brown, and gold enamel decoration on a white background shows three characters who seem to be contemplating a hilly landscape dominated by shrubs and grass. Light wear to the gilding.

W: 5,5 in / D: 5,5in / H: 2in.

Late 18th century.

Price 1200€

REF:4163