

Early 19th Century Opaline Crystal Cup With Birds.

White opaline cup with gilt bronze mounts. The upper, gilded rim is finely sculpted with water-leaf. The handles are in the form of doves drinking. This motif is inspired by an antique mosaic discovered at Tivoli and mentioned by Pliny.

D: 5.31 in. (13,5 cm) / H: 3.54 in. (9 cm)

Restauration Period. Charles X. Circa 1830-1830.

Price: 3800€.

REF:4659