

A Silver Scent Bottle in the Shape of a Pilgrim Flask.
German 18th century.

Antique Silver Scent Bottle in the shape of a Pilgrim Flask German. Its silver surface is decorated with elaborate scrollwork and two oval medallions. On one side, a wedding scene is represented, on the other, two hands joining on a heart and surmounted by a lamb and a cross. The bottle opens in the upper part but also at the level of the foot. A removable lid probably allowed to slip pills or perfume.

H: 3.7 in. (9,5 cm)

Silvermarks.

probably German in origin. Early 18th century.

The bottle shows wear of use.

Price:1900€

REF:5073