

A 18th-Century Gold and enamel case. Hanau

An gold and oblong shape features rounded ends snuff-box. The hinged lid, the base and the four panels of the side are decorated with a guilloché pattern with parallel stripes and dots. The border is decorated with a scrolling leaf-and-bead enhanced with translucent green enamel and white. These same motifs of guilloché adorn panels of the side and base.

Weight: 2.46oz (70g.)

L: 3.5in. (9 cm) / l: 0.9in. (2.5 cm) / H: 0.07in. (2 cm)

Gold Prestige Marks. Recontrolled. 18k gold.

Goldsmith FJ.

Work of Hanau, late 18th century. Circa 1780.

Hanau was an important center of production as was Berlin and Dresden.

Price: 12800€

REF: 4875