

Portrait of a man on ivory. Signed Violet.

Portrait of a three-quarter man in black frock coat and white shirt. The dark background is lit. The face is highlighted by a light coming from the right and emphasizing the persistent look of this man.

Inscriptions and signature on the back of the miniature.

Pierre Noël Violet (1749-1819). Painter and engraver was one of the miniaturists of King Louis XVI. He immigrated to England during the Revolution.

Price: 800 €

REF:8105

Bibliography:

Lemoine-Bouchard Nathalie, Les peintres en miniature actifs en France, 2008, p. 529-530.