

Early 19th century portrait on ivory. Signed DROUIN.

Portrait on ivory representing a young man with half-body wearing a black frock coat opening on a white shirt. The young man in front carries favorites. The background is brown.

Miniature signed DROUIN. Jean-Pierre Drouin was born in Besançon (1782-1861). He was a pupil of Dejoux. He specialized in oil, watercolor or miniature portraits. He had a gallery at the Royal Palace.

Restauration Period

Price:800€

REF:8107