

A PAIR OF CUT-GLASS SILVER-MOUNTED DECANTERS, 19th century

Pair of cut crystal decanter or ewer engraved with scrolls and floral patterns. The crystal is set in a fine silver setting with pilasters and garlands on the body of each carafe. The top and the handle are decorated with floral patterns and a cartouche. Each carafe rests on a finely chiselled pedestal.

Hallmark: EDT for Edmond Tétard. "House founded in 1880 by Edmond Tétard (1860-1901) following the takeover of Mr. Hugo's house. In 1889, he participated in the Universal Exhibition and received a gold medal. The house specializes in services and shaped pieces in the Louis XV style. »Museum of Arts Décoratifs Paris.

Era: late-19th century, Louis XV style.

Dim: H 12.4 in. (31,5 cm).

Weight: 78.51oz. (2226 g).

Minerva head.

EDT for Edmond Tétard. (1860-1901)