

Ewer in silver and crystal. Late 19th century.

Ewer in crystal and cut with gadroons. The crystal is set in a silver setting with a rococo cartel decoration shredded on the body. The handle is divided into two parts and the neck is finely chiseled with patterns of grooves and roccaille. The grip is decorated with a flame pattern. The vermeil base has the same roccaille decor.

H: 28 cm.

Silver mark: charençon from 1864

Master silversmith: Grogner Lyon arma. for GRONIER-ARNAUD LAURENT et Cie in Lyon

REF: 4710

P: 2400€