

Early 19th Century continental ivory plaque

Era: early 19th century

Materials: ivory

Dim: W 9.25 in / H 3 in

Dim: W 23,5 cm / H 7,8 cm

A Continental ivory rectangular plaque from the early 19th century, finely carved with a farandole of putti around a sheaf of wheat symbolizing prosperity and happiness. The scene is framed by two finely carved trees and a neoclassical temple landscape. Early 19th century.