

Wood, Tortoiseshell And Enamel Box With Miniature. Mid-19th Century.

Rectangular box in wood veener and tortoiseshell marquetry. The hinged lid is decorated with an ivory miniature depicting a young man in black suit and white tie. The young man is wearing a watch chain and a tie pin on his collar. This portrait is surrounded by a frame of gold and black enamel. The signature of the miniature is illegible. Inside, the bottom of the snuffbox is lined with brown tortoiseshell.

Dim: L : 3.54in. (9 cm) / l : 1.96in. (5 cm) / h : 0.78in. (2 cm).

Restoration period. Circa 1820-1830.

Price: 2400€

Ref: 4825