

GOLD, ENAMEL AND DIAMOND ART DECO CIGARETTE CASE, BY CARTIER

A gold rectangular form box, the hinged cover with engraved central panel to a black and white enamel geometric pattern border. The base is similarly decorated, with enameled and a baguette-cut diamond thumb piece. In the 1920s and '30s, smoking was regarded as a sophisticated pastime. Many Hollywood stars posed with stylish cigarette cases. Signed Cartier, Paris, Londres, New York. N°01561. Some wears to the enamel.
