

Porcelain Gueridon Table in Rocaille Style

This one-of-a-kind gueridon table crafted in the Louis XV style, is a tour de force of porcelain design. Exotic fruits, flowers, butterflies and birds on branches pecking fruits decorate the circular top in Sevres porcelain, which is divided in eight compartments. The gilded bronze mounts are richly adorned with intricately detailed fruits and Rocaille motifs. Tripod base in bronze, highlighted with acanthus leaves and scrolled gadrooned foliage. The central foot is ornamented with flowers and foliage.

Era: 19th century

Circa: 1860

Materials: gilded bronze & porcelain

Dim: W: 20,9 in / D: 20,9in / H: 32,3in