

An early pair of ormolu and patinated bronze candelsticks.

A pair of gilt bronze and patinated candlesticks. Each candlestick in form of caryatid in patinated bronze, presents a caryatid with bare chest and chiton; draped skirt; held at the waist by a gilded belt. Each caryatid raises its chiton revealing their bare feet. Thin golden bracelets chiselled with Greek motifs adorn their arms. On the head, a tassled cushion supports a bobèche chiselled with palmettes. The base is decorated with friezes of lotus and stylised palmettes.

Early 19th century work. Circa 1815-1820
