

Gold, agate, ruby and pearl desk clock.

Elegant gold desk clock representing a rose bush in which is included an enamelled dial. The white enamel dial with Breguet style numerals and gold hands is signed "Almaric frères". It is decorated with half pearls. This antique movement was later mounted in a gold frame representing roses set with rubies. This composition rests on an white agate base.

The movement is from the Almaric brothers in Geneva. These watchmakers were active in Geneva at the end of the 18th century.
