

Beginning 19th century ormolu centerpiece.

Circa: 1820

Era: First 19th century.

Materials: ormolu, glass.

Dim: H: 9 cm/ Diam: 31 cm.

A circular gilt and chiseled bronze centertable resting on four foliated feet, the circular base covered with a mirror is surrounded by two friezes of draped putti. On the lower frieze, they are sitting on a wreath of roses heighlighted with ribbons, playing music and drawing arc. The upper openwork frieze depicts winged Cupids playing with animals. Circa 1820.