

Umbrella head transformed into a perfume bottle

Very elegant umbrella handle in ivory very finely carved with tiny flowers with four petals carried by long stems starting from the triangular base of the object and blooming throughout the large leaves. The whole is sprinkled with small red beads. The neck is finished by a notched crown.

A coral stopper added to the object giving it the appearance of a bottle.

Origin: Extreme orient.

Dim: H:14 cm L:3,8 cm P:3 cm

Dim: H:5,51 inch L: 1,49 inch P:1,18 inch

Époque: XIX siècle

Price:1600 Euros

Ref: 6057