French silver control.

Large Empire-style vermeil ewer with swan-shaped spout. The body of the ewer is decorated at the top and bottom with antique motifs such as palmettes, fleurons and acanthus leaves. The center of the body contrasts with the repoussé and chased parts through its mirror effect. The foot is adorned with a frieze of gadroons at the base and a frieze of oves and darts at the top. Lid with pinecone knob. French silver control. Some scratches on the body.
