

Charles X gilt bronze and mother-of-pearl casket with flowers

Fine rectangular mother of pearl box engraved with garlands of leaves and gilt bronze mounts, finely chiseled with interlacing, garlands and flower basket resting on four winged lion paws legs. The lid is decorated with a large central medallion depicting a bouquet of flowers cut from fabric under a domed glass. The subtlety of the shades of white, beige and coloured gray and the fineness of the carving give this box a great elegance.
