

Gold and enamel bracelet. Mid 19th century.

Era: XIX century.

Materials: gold, enamel.

Dim: L 7 in. (18 cm).

Weight: 2.73 oz (77,6 gr).

Gold 18 ct.

Articulated bracelet in enameled gold. The bracelet is composed of five enamelled gold medallions each representing a woman wearing 18th century dress on both sides of a young man. These young people are presented in mid-eighteenth costumes on a countryside background whose design is influenced by the paintings of Pater or Boucher. The frame of the bracelet is in gold of several tones and is decorated with a floral decoration on amati gold background. Pearls connect each medallion.

This bracelet is characteristic of the Napoleon lll century, during which the decorative arts are influenced by Rocaille style.
