Miniature on Ivory, Portrait of a woman

Era: Restauration Period.

Materials: ivory, gilt bronze.

Dim: H 5.7in (14,5cm)/ W 3.7in (9,5 cm).

Large oval miniature depicting a young woman in a navy blue dress with sleeves called "gigot", lace collar or "canezou" closed by a knot. This young woman wears fine jewelry including earrings, a belt buckle and a chain running on his chest. It stands out against a brown monochrome background. The portrait is presented in a gilded bronze frame finely chiseled and adorned with a knot. Circa 1830. Some wear on the dress.
