

Early 19th century miniature on ivory of a child

Miniature on ivory presented in an oval frame. Miniature representing a young child in swaddling clothes and seated lace cap holding in his hands a fruit. On the reverse, an inscription reads "Davida Angélique Marguerite Schikler baronne de Schikler" 1801-1884. The Schickler family were powerful bankers of Basel origin, primarily funding princes of the Old German Empire. Davida Angélique Marguerite married Jean-Georges Schickler. She died in 1884 in Baden-Baden.

Era: early 19th century.

Materials: ivory, wood.

Dim (frame): H 14 cm / W 13 cm.

Dim (miniature): H 9 cm / W 7 cm.