

Gilt bronze and patinated inkstand with lion-dog, French Restauration

Era: 19th century, Restauration period.

Materials: gilt and patinated bronze.

Dim: H 10,5 cm / W 11,5 cm/ D 6 cm.

Dim: H 4.1in / W 4.5 in / D 2.4 in .

Inkwell in gilded and patinated bronze consisting of a rectangular base covered with a lid surmounted by a sculpture in patinated bronze depicting a lion dog holding between its teeth a mail fold. The base is finely chiseled with decorative palmette patterns. The inkwell has two inkwells and two pen holders.