

Louis Philippe Enameled Opaline Crystal Vase

Era: 19th century, Louis Philippe.

Materials: opaline.

Dim: H 15,7 in / Diam 6,3 in.

Dim: H 40 cm / Diam 16 cm.

A 19th century baluster-shaped vase in blown opaline crystal called white opaline and vitrified polychromy. The vase has a decoration of polychrome flowers featuring bouquets of flowers on a white background. Gilded arabesques and latticework surround the bouquets, and the rim and base are decorated with broad, gilt and blue stripes. Circa 1840.

In overall good condition, with light wear to the gilding.