

19th Century Silver chatelaine with pearls

Silver chatelaine inlaid with pearls and composed of three sections. The upper portion features a belt hook decorated with a miniature showing two cupids set in a frame topped by a crown and embellished with pearls. Three decorative chains connect the upper medallion to a central medallion that has another miniature featuring a cupid holding a wreath of flowers. The piece supports watch whose casing is decorated with an intricate latticework motif and also has a miniature of a cupid releasing a dove from a cage. The entire piece is highlighted with pearls. French craftsmanship.

Era: Mid-19th century.

Materials: silver, pearl.

Dim: H 5.5 in with watch / 4.3 in without watch.

Weight: 2 oz with the watch.

Watch diameter: 1.2 in

Silver Mark: Boar head from 1838.

