

A late 19th-century German silver mounted red crystal

Pear-shaped crystal bottle in red color mounted in a vermeil frame with pierced oval foot decorated with palmettes. The body is applied with cast female bust pilasters linked together by garlands of fruit and flowers and finely chiseled. The collar is chiseled with palmettes and stylized floral motifs. Removable stopper. A dedication is engraved at the base "Graf Van Hutten Czapski". The Graf Van Hutten Czapski family belonged to the Polish aristocracy. Probably a German work. Two fine stripes on one side.

Era: late 19th century

Materials: cristal, silver

Dim (in): H:12.59in. / l: 6.69in.

Dim (cm): H: 32 cm / L: 17cm.