OUAISS ANTIQUITÉS
Galerie des Arts

Early 19th century Porcelaine Clock, from Paris

Period: 19th century.

Materials: porcelain.

Dim (in): H: 10.23in. / W: 11.8in. / D: 6.69in.

Dim (cm): H: 26 cm / W: 30 cm / D: 17 cm.

A gilt porcelain vase-shaped clock, signed "Normant à Paris", resting on three claw feet. The body of the clock is decorated with flutes enhanced with foliage and small pearls with a band decorated with alternating acanthus leaves and flowers topped with shells. It has two small handles in the shape of unicorns. The dial is enamelled with Roman numerals, steel Breguet hands, indicating the hours, quarters and minutes. A reattached horn.

Revised movement in working order.