

Nineteen century vinaigrette in gold and enamel

Vinaigrette formed as a basket suspended by a gold link chain in translucent green enamelled gold, showing a guilloché pattern. The vinaigrette is decorated with cartels showing polychrome floral bouquets on an opalescent pink enamel background. The hinged lid is set with a ruby. The vinaigrette is linked to a ring by a gold chain adorned with an enamelled trefoil. Inside, a circular grid decorated with scrolls contains a vinegar and perfumed sponge. Master goldsmith: L.G and guisarme for Guyard Louis registered in 1867.
