OUAISS ANTIQUITÉS
Galerie des Arts

A micromosaic brooch , early 19 th century

Circa: 1800

Era: early 19th century.

Materials: pompone, micromosaic glass.

Dim: H: 5 cm/ W: 3,3cm.

A brooch micro mosaic on a blue glass vitrified support representing a man dressed like a Roman, wearing a crown of laurel and brandishing a torch flame, upright on his chariot drawn by two sea serpents, allegorical marine animal of the Roman antiquity.The mount in pomponne is made up of two serpents head to head carrying on their head a cabochon in green jasper.

Dimension of the micromosaic without the frame: H:2,4 cm W:2,7 cm

Price: 3600 Euros