

Pair of pink granite and gilt bronze vases, 19th century.

Circa: 1850

Era: 19th century.

Materials: marble and gilt bronze.

Dimension: H: 44 cm/ W: 21cm/ D: 17 cm.

Pair of ovoid vases on pedestal in the Louis XVI style in pink granite resting on a square base with a removable lid with an elegant finial in the form of foliage and acorn very decorative.

A very rich gilt bronze frame of interlacing leaves and flowers surrounds the body of the vase and ends on the sides with two handles representing an ibex head. The foot and the base are set with acanthus leaves. Circa:1850