

Mid-19th century pair of vases in Ural granite and gilt bronze

Era: Mid-19th century.

Materials: Ural granite, ormolu.

Dim: H: 52 cm/ W: 26 cm/ D: 20 cm.

A pair of Ural granite and gilt bronze ornamental vases in Louis XVI style, provided with young women-shaped handles, the back slightly bent by the weight of the garlands they are wearing on their shoulders, the legs ending in interlaced foliages. Friezes of lambrequin and pearls decorate the paunch. Ormolu small pearls adorn the foot, above a square base chiseled with flowers and flutes. Circa: 1850.