

Vermeil And Crystal Flask, 19th Century

Crystal and gilded silver ewer-shaped bottle. The body of the bottle is entirely decorated with fine silver filigree, champlevé technique, and enhanced with cherubs' heads. The removable lid is inspired by a helmet and the handle is decorated with fine foliage. The body of the bottle opens onto a faceted crystal and the foot is adorned with a crystal pearl.

19th century work.

Era: 19th century.

Materials: vermeil, silver.

Dim: H 11 cm / W 5,5 cm / D 2 cm.