Art nouveau suspension lamp in pâte de verre, Emile Galle

Era: Art Nouveau, 20th century.

Materials: glass.

Dim: H 66 cm / Diam 34 cm.

Signeg: Gallé

Multi-layered pâte de verre bowl-shaped suspension fixture with acid-etched decoration of blue flowers and well-veined leaves on a yellow-orange background that glows warmly in the light. Three stylized flower-shaped hooks hold the suspension and are extended by chains that join at the center of the ceiling cover. Signed Gallé.

Bowl height: 9 cm.

Emile Gallé (1846-1904), born in Nancy in 1846 and died in 1904, was a French industrialist, master glassmaker, cabinetmaker and ceramist. He was the founder and first president of the École de Nancy in 1901. A child of art and commerce, he was one of the most important figures in the applied arts of his time, and a pioneer of Art Nouveau.
