

A miniature portrait of Madame de Sévigné, 19th century

Era: 19th century

Materials; ivory, gilt bronze

Dim: H 19 cm / W 13,5 cm

Large miniature on ivory depicting a three-quarter portrait of a woman, probably Mme de Sevigné. She is dressed in a red gown with gold embroidery, a neckline adorned with white lace and a string of pearls. Her brown, curly hair is carefully arranged in cascading curls, adorned with white pearls, typical of Baroque fashion. Gilded bronze frame topped with a ribbon bow. She has a gentle and slightly melancholic expression.

Dimensions of the miniature: 11.5 cm /9.5 cm.
