A silver hand mirror, vermeil, enamel decorated with birds

Era: 2nde part of the 19th century

Materials: silver, enamel

Dim: H 20 / W 10,5 cm / D 2,3 cm

This Baroque-style hand mirror features a finely chiselled, partially gilded silver frame with hinges. The intricately carved handle depicts a cherub holding a garland of golden grapes and fruit, evoking abundance and the world of Bacchus. The mirror frame is composed of a crown of vine branches, embellished with green enamelled leaves, gilded grape clusters and small gilded birds perched here and there on the frame. Original bevelled mirror.
