

A French perfume bottle in blue opaline by Jean-Baptiste Desvignes, Charles X period

Period: first 19th century, Charles X

Materials: opaline

Dim: H 12 cm/ W 10 cm

Jean-Baptiste Desvignes

Small perfume bottle in blue turquoise opaline with its ball shaped cork, decorated with a wreath of roses, anemones and forget-me in gold and dark blue. The hole is raised by golden netting of various thicknesses. At the top of the cap and on the belly, fine linear patterns. Golden linear patterns complete this beautiful decoration realised by Jean-Baptiste Desvignes. Light wear to the gold.